

Bethany Beach Committee Guidelines

Purpose:

It shall be the duty of the Mayor to appoint committees subject to Town Council confirmation. The Town Council shall establish the committee's role, membership and leadership. Committees exist for the sole purpose of fulfilling the role and direction authorized by the Town Council.

Definitions:

Committee - A committee in the Town of Bethany Beach is a body of at least three persons elected or appointed to consider, study, investigate or take action on assigned matters. Committees are established to fulfill a specific purpose or serve in an advisory role to Town Council as well as promoting greater citizen participation.

Citizen – Any person who owns property in the Town of Bethany Beach or has been a full-time resident for a minimum of 30 days.

Types:

- A. Mandated Committees: Committees in continuous existence; specifically the Planning and Zoning Commission, Board of Adjustment, and Board of Assessment that are mandated by state law.
- B. Standing Committees: Committees that are in existence as allowed by the Town Council.
- Members may be suggested to or by the chairperson, and then they are nominated by the Mayor and confirmed by Town Council at the beginning of each new administration.
 - The Town Council establishes responsibilities.
 - The chairperson of the committee is appointed by the Mayor and approved by the Town Council except for the Planning and Zoning Commission and the Board of Adjustment, which choose their own Chairperson among those appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the Town Council.
- C. Ad Hoc or Special Committees: Committees that are established as the need arises generally on a short-term basis to study an issue of concern or need.
- Membership of the committees may be determined at the same time the motion to create the committee is approved.
 - Duties are assigned at the time of establishment.

- The chairperson of any Standing Committee wishing to support an Ad Hoc Committee will submit to the Town Council for approval a white paper containing the purpose, scope and membership of the Committee.
- The Town Manager or Town Council may also recommend the formation of an Ad Hoc Committee.

Term:

Normally, committee chairs shall be appointed during the Town Council Organizational meeting. Committee appointments expire annually, except those with multi-year limits, at the close of business on the day before the next regular Town Council meeting after the Organizational meeting. Committee members shall be appointed annually during that same meeting. Planning and Zoning Commission and Board of Adjustment members' terms of office shall be effective as of that date.

Membership

- A. The Mayor with Town Council confirmation shall appoint the committee chairperson.
- B. The committee chairperson may recommend potential committee members and present their nominations to the Mayor.
- C. The Mayor with Town Council confirmation shall appoint the committee members.
- D. If a new committee member is needed during the term, the chairperson shall recommend the potential committee member and present their nomination to the Mayor. The Mayor with Town Council confirmation may appoint the new committee member.
- E. There shall be at least three but not more than nine members on a committee unless requested, in writing, by a committee chair and approved by the Town Council.
- F. No more than two members of the Town Council shall be on any committee.
- G. Some type of knowledge in the field is desirable; however, no specific experience is required.
- H. Committee members must be citizens of the Town of Bethany Beach in order to be a full voting member of any committee. Staff members may serve on committees as non-voting members.

- I. A person shall not serve on more than three committees unless a waiver is granted by a majority vote by the Town Council.
- J. Committee members should be accommodated as much as possible, if such accommodations does not interfere with the working of the Town.
- K. Citizens interested in serving on committees should express their interest to the Bethany Beach Town Manager's Office. Citizens are asked to write a brief summary explaining their interest. A list of interested citizens will be provided to the Mayor, Town Council and Committee Chairperson for consideration. Interested citizens should be made aware that on some occasions there are not enough vacancies to accommodate all who are interested in particular Committee assignments.
- L. Town Council members shall not serve on the Audit Committee.
- M. Continued non-attendance at scheduled meetings will serve as cause for a member to not be reappointed. Unexcused absences at scheduled meetings will serve as a cause for being removed from the Committee and not reappointed.

Agenda

In order to observe the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requirements, an agenda must be established for each meeting after which it shall be published and posted in a timely manner by the Town Clerk. Agendas are normally posted at least seven days in advance of a meeting.

Meetings

- A. At a minimum, standing committees must meet twice annually or it may be suggested that the purpose of the committee has expired.
- B. A record of the meeting shall be made in the form of minutes taken by a staff member and kept in the Town files. Minutes are a factual record of the actions of a committee. They are not to be used to express opinions or views of a committee chairman or committee members. Town staff shall make changes to the minutes based on the recorded records of committee meetings, but will not rewrite minutes of a committee meeting unless directed to do so by a majority vote of the Town Council.

Decorum

- A. Respect and adhere to the ideals of government, rules of law, principles of public administration and high ethical conduct, which are expected in the performance of public duties.

- B. Provide fair and equal treatment for all persons and matters coming before the public body.
- C. Learn and study background and purpose of items of business before voting.
- D. Faithfully perform all duties of office and attend all scheduled sessions/meetings.
- E. Refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges, or verbal attacks upon character, motives, ethics or morals of other elected or appointed town officials.
- F. Listen courteously, attentively and tolerantly to all views expressed at public meetings and avoid interrupting other speakers.
- G. Committee chairpersons are responsible for giving reports at the monthly Town Council meetings. In the event that the Chairperson is not available, he or she will assign someone from the council or the committee to give the report.
- H. The Chair of the Committee is responsible for the orderly conduct of business at meetings. The Chair shall recognize members as well as attendees before speaking.

Ethics

Each member of Bethany Beach committees and commissions has the following ethical obligations:

- A. Represent and work for the common good of the Town and not for any private interest.
- B. Refuse to accept gifts or favors or promises of future benefits, which might compromise or tend to impair independent judgment or action.
- C. Decline any employment incompatible with public duty, disclose or recuse from matters involving conflict of interest.
- D. Maintain the highest standards of public conduct to maintain the public trust.

These guidelines shall be reconfirmed annually at the next regular Town Council meeting, after the Organizational meeting. Upon approval, they will be distributed to all Town Council members and committees.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

PURPOSE:

Overseeing relations with the independent auditors on behalf of the Town Council.

SCOPE OF WORK:

In accomplishing its assigned responsibilities, the Audit Committee will review the following listed matters and such other matters as may warrant its attention. It may, with approval of the Town Council, engage additional assistance to undertake such reviews of financial management performance as it deems necessary.

- * Recommend to the Town Council the selection of external auditors and the annual fees to be paid for their services and to recommend to the Town Council any proposed retention or discharge of external auditors.
- * Review the external auditors' annual financial statements and reports including compliance of the Town's accounting and financial management systems and reports with generally accepted principles for municipal governments.
- * Review the annual financial management letter of the external auditors.

- * The Committee will review the investment policy each year and recommend any changes to Council.
- * The Committee will make recommendations to Council relative to long-term financial goals through the budget process.

CHARTER AND ORDINANCE REVIEW COMMITTEE (CORC)

PURPOSE

To maintain and keep current the Town's Charter and Ordinances.

SCOPE OF WORK

- * Review ordinances on a routine basis to edit outdated and redundant entries.
- * Upgrade the Town Code to meet any anticipated changes in law, evolving technologies and new regulatory issues.
- * CORC may discuss any new item that a community or committee member brings forward.
- * CORC will solicit input from Town Offices/Staff.
- * Any recommendations for significant change will be forwarded to Town Council in the form of a white paper.

Procedures

A member of CORC will volunteer to write a "white paper" detailing the proposal and present it to the CORC Committee as a whole at the next scheduled meeting.

If the CORC committee agrees with the "white paper", the Chairman will present the proposal to the Town Council at its meeting scheduled for the following month.

At its next meeting (30 days later), the Town Council should vote on whether or not the CORC committee should proceed with the proposal.

- * Note: The above noted procedures will not be followed for simple housekeeping amendments to the Town Code.
